Fayetteville-Lincoln County Public Library serves all of Lincoln County with resources ranging from print materials like books and magazines to electronic resources like public access computers, e-books and laptops. Our friendly bibliophiles are here to help you find your new favorite book, your family heritage, or help with scholarly research.

We offer 13 public access computers, 10 laptops for in house use, kids' computers, children's story time every Wednesday, Explorer's Club every Wednesday, a lecture series throughout the year, museum exhibits, student tutoring, a great Summer Reading program for kids, teens and adults, special Saturday events, and computer classes of all varieties. There is always something fun and educational happening at the Fayetteville-Lincoln County Public Library where we focus on "Equality. Wisdom. Discovery."
