Library Services

Library Collection: Books for all ages, large print books, reference materials, videocassettes and DVDs, audiobooks, magazines, newspapers, local history materials, genealogy materials, study guides.

Courier and Interlibrary Loan: If our library does not own a book that you would like to read, we will attempt to borrow it for you from another library. There is no charge for borrowing books from another library in the Northeast Tennessee Library Network (those listed in our shared online catalog), but there is a charge for borrowing books from a library outside of this network. New books, reference books, books in high demand, audios, and videos are not available for either courier or interlibrary loan.

Children's Services: Storytime for preschoolers, Story Club for elementary-age children, Summer Reading Program.

Local History and Genealogy: History and genealogy materials, volunteers one evening a month to assist with local history and genealogical research.

Other Library Services: Public internet access, copy machine, microfilm reader/printer.
